171 48.04 ADMINISTRATION.

172
173 (1) The Human Resources Director shall supervise and
174 administer the grievance process.

175
176 (2) Department Heads, Managers, and Supervisors shall 177 keep the Human Resources Director informed of the 178 status of all employee discipline actions, and grievances
179 relating thereto.

180
181 48.05 EMPLOYEE DISCIPLINE PROCEDURE.

182
183 (1) Any employee who violates any work rule, engages in
184 misconduct related to the workplace or to the employee's
185 position, or engages in poor work performance may be
186 subject to discipline including suspension or termination.
187 The employee's immediate Supervisor shall be
188 responsible for imposition of discipline. A Supervisor may
189 utilize verbal or written notices, reminders, or warnings
190 that the Supervisor determines to be appropriate. The 191 Supervisor is encouraged but is not required to follow a
192 specific pattern of progressive discipline, including verbal
193 or written notices, reminders, or warnings prior to
194 suspension or termination, but the absence or presence
195 of verbal or written notices, reminders, or warnings may 196 be considered in the determination of whether the

197 discipline subject to a grievance was arbitrary and
198 capricious.

199
200 (2) Any employee discipline will be accompanied by a written
201 statement which states at least one reason for the 202 discipline and the date or dates it will take effect.

203
204 (3) Prior to issuing any suspension or discharge, the 205 Supervisor or Department Head must consult and obtain
206 the approval of the Human Resources Director.

207

209 as described in the Sheboygan County Personnel Policy
210 and Procedure Manual, as it may be amended from time
211 to time.

212
213 (5) Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to require a
214 Supervisor to impose discipline in a sequential or 215 progressive manner. A Supervisor has discretion to
216 impose discipline that he or she determines is appropriate
217 under the circumstances.

218
219 48.06 ORAL GRIEVANCE PROCESS.

220
221 (1) An employee with a grievance must orally first present the

225 this time frame shall render any subsequent grievance
226 null and void.

227
228 (2) The Supervisor shall promptly notify the Human
229 Resources Director and the Department Head of any oral
230 grievance, provide the name of the employee and the
231 nature of the grievance, and keep the Human Resources
232 Director and the Department Head informed of the status
233 of the grievance.

234
235 (3) The Supervisor shall meet with the employee to discuss 236 the grievance and attempt to resolve the grievance. This 237 attempt shall be completed within ten (10) days of the 238 presentation of the grievance.

239
240 (4) The Supervisor shall prepare a written report
241 documenting all of the facts and circumstances regarding

244 Department Head, the Human Resources Director, and 245 the employee.

313 personnel files to the extent allowed by Wis. Stat. §
314 101.13.
315
- 316 (7) The hearing shall be conducted using the procedures set

325
- 326 (9) The hearing examiner has the authority to overturn the
